Food & Beverage/Meeting Requirements

All food and beverages must be purchased through Hotel, except specialty cakes, nuts & mints, which are permitted into the meeting / banquet rooms by the clients with approval from the management staff. No food or beverages may be removed from the premises once it has been prepared and served. These policies are dictated by food safety & licensing laws. If these policies are violated a fee determined by the management staff will be charged.

Final menu selections are due one month prior to the function date. A guaranteed number of guests for each meal function must be turned in 7 days in advance. This guarantee may not be reduced. If the hotel does not receive a firm guarantee 7 days in advance, then all charges will be based on the estimated number or actual number of guests, whichever is greater. Food and beverage menu prices are subject to change and will be billed at the prices in effect at the time your event is held.

Prices are subject to a 21% service charge and applicable sales tax. Meals must start being served within one half hour of the scheduled time. If meals are not started within one half hour there will be a charge of $100 for every half hour thereafter.
